Timing: 3 hours

Purpose of this chapter: This chapter puts participants in the proper mindset for sparking and growing their business to achieve success. You will cover why the learners (they will now be referred to as Cappers in Training!) are here, and what you expect from them in terms of mindset, goal setting, accountability and scripts.*

Chapter Overview:

- 1. Discussion of Mission and their importance to setting them up for success each class*
- 2. Importance of mindset and The Six Personal Perspectives*
- 3. How accountability is critical and accountability tools*
- 4. The benefit and purpose of scripts*
- 5. Commitment to Ignite*

Participants will make calls in class with prescribed scripts. Help them succeed by committing to hold them accountable to doing ALL activities in all Ignite sessions.

Welcome to Ignite!

You are embarking on a new, exciting, and challenging adventure, and leaving your former life behind. Get your heart and head in the right place as we begin this adventure.

Get Your Head in the Game

Write your answers to and discuss the following questions as a class.

- Have you achieved your financial goals through your career so far? Why/Why not?

- What is the one thing that makes one real estate agent more successful than others?

Instructor:

The answer should be: Lead generate daily.

- Why don't all agents do this?

Instructor:

It's hard; not disciplined; not skilled; don't believe it's important ...

- How do you feel about that?

- Is your desire to succeed more powerful than your fear from doing the one thing that will make you successful?

Instructor:

The answer should be: YES!!!

Great!

You're ready, you know what it takes, and you're powered by your conviction to succeed!

Instructor:

Allow students a few minutes

to write answers. Then ask the questions and wait for their answers.

This activity is important to gain the mindset

necessary to move forward.

You're in Business!

Instructor:

Stress three concepts:

1. They are in sales!

There's ONE Thing that can propel you forward in your career. What is it?

The secret is simple, and is not a secret at all. It is lead generation ... and you're going to learn this skill and do a lot of it in this course, so get used to this winning reality quickly.

2. They are in the business of lead

You are in sales—yes, sales! Your livelihood is dependent on the number of homes you help others buy or sell. Gary Keller, cofounder of the company, says you're actually in two businesses—in this order:

generation!

1. The business of lead generation

3. Mindset matters!

2. The business of real estate

Mindset and Attitude Matters

You may think that lead generation will be making phone calls that are bothering and annoying to people. We all feel that way, especially when we feel like we're being sold to. However, when you adopt an attitude of contribution, a significant shift in how people respond happens.

Change your mindset to focus on being of service!

Adopting a mindset and a philosophy of contributing to the lives of other people allows you to be direct and to the point in your interactions with others. With a focus on contribution and being of service, you'll communicate more effectively with customers and win their hearts and minds effortlessly.

Energy, enthusiasm, and a deeply rooted belief in doing the best job possible for each and every customer attracts people to you. Take every opportunity to educate the people in your personal, professional, and social life about what you do and how you can help them. These reminders for people in your network can lead to many, many referrals for business.

The Six Personal Perspectives

The most successful at this business know it takes a certain mindset and attitude to keep at it every day and especially to excel! Fortunately, Keller Williams Realty has a foundational model for a successful mindset which came into existence when Gary Keller asked the question of hundreds of top agents ...

“What is it that differentiates those who achieve at the highest level from those who don’t seem to accomplish as much?”

After thoroughly researching this question, Gary discovered that all high achievers have three basic attributes in common:

Based on these three attributes, the Six Personal Perspectives came to be.

Instructor:

Ask:

Your Mission assignment was to watch the videos of the 6 Personal Perspectives.

Which one resonated the most with you?

Tell:

The 6PP will be brought up again and again in Ignite because they are the foundation of the KW mindset. We’ll go over them briefly here.

Read Gary’s question that helped him derive the 6PP.

Step 1: Commit to Self-Mastery

Self-mastery is ...

the possession of great knowledge, skills, and habits that make You the master of You.

When you commit to achieving self-mastery, you

1. know your goals
2. know your strengths and weaknesses
3. know how to work with both your strengths and weaknesses to seek and master the necessary knowledge, skills, and habits to reach your goals

Instructor:

Reinforce this concept.

Throughout Ignite, you will be acquiring the skills and developing habits to be successful—moving you toward self-mastery.

Step 2: Commit to the 80/20 Principle

The idea that 20 percent of your actions lead to 80 percent of your results may be one of the most powerful principles you can apply to your life. It's about getting the most from your time and effort. It's about maximizing your results. It's about having focus.

Instructor:

Reinforce this concept.

In Ignite, we identify your 20 percent for you ... your money-making activity—lead generation!

Step 3: Move from “E” to “P”

High achievers ...

are always looking for the purposeful way.
By doing this, they break through the ceiling of their natural behavior.

You can attain a certain level of success utilizing your natural abilities, but expect to hit a ceiling at some point. Wouldn't you like to achieve even greater success and break through that ceiling? How about living a larger life? Or attaining your goals?

Ignite is not only designed to help start your business, it is designed to help you grow your business. Ignite will help you move from Entrepreneurial to Purposeful with skill mastery.

Instructor:
Reinforce this concept.

Step 4: Make Being “Learning Based” the Foundation of Your Action Plan

A learning-based individual is ...

an individual who has made the decision to use effective learning as the foundation piece for their action plan to develop their life.

Training and education are a big part of moving forward to attain your goals and succeed at a high level. Learning-based individuals commit to the process of acquiring skill-based habits.

*Ignite is just the start for you as a learning-based individual.
Keller Williams Realty offers many learning opportunities for you.*

Instructor:
Reinforce this concept.

Step 5: Remove Your “Limiting Beliefs”

High achievers ...

remove beliefs from their thinking that hold them back.

In order to successfully develop at a higher level, you will need to clear your mind of limiting beliefs first. For example, are any of these thoughts in your head?

Instructor:

Ask:

Do any of you have these thoughts?

- “I have to be an expert and know everything before I can begin my business; I’m not valid yet.”
- “I don’t think I can achieve a profit goal that will fund my life this year.”
- “Because I’m in the business, the business will come to me naturally. I don’t need to devote three hours each day to lead generation.”

Instructor:

Activity: Turn Limiting Beliefs into Unlimiting Beliefs

Allow students a few minutes to work on this activity on their own.

Then ask for their answers.

How would you redirect these negative thoughts into positive ones—into unlimiting beliefs—that will fuel your success?

“I need to be a professional, not an expert. Expertise will come from doing. This training will best prepare me for success in the real estate business and taking productive action will cause my success.”

- business and taking productive action will cause my success.”

“When I set and track my goal and complete the activities required to

- meet my goal, I will fund my life this year.”

“To consistently have business, I will have to consistently go after it. I

- can’t afford to miss three hours of lead generation—it’s my future!”

Instructor:

Reinforce this concept.

Throughout Ignite, you will learn how to combat your limiting beliefs and turn them into action.

Step 6: Be Accountable

Accountability is first and foremost “an attitude and an approach” to your entire life.

An accountable person says, “Everything in my life is a result of my choices and actions. I own my life.”

Accountability is also a tool for continually changing the results in your life in those areas that matter most—your 20 percent. A person who is accountable in their 20 percent says, “I own my life, and in certain areas, I want to continually improve my results. I will be purposeful, and I will be learning based to continue improving.”

Ignite will provide you with tools to develop and cultivate your accountability to be successful.

Instructor:
Reinforce this concept.
Tell:
Remember, you can reach the highest level of achievement in business and life by adopting these Six Personal Perspectives.

For Further Study

If you haven't already, view the Six Personal Perspectives videos on KWConnect.com. Ask your Team Leader when the class will be offered in your Market Center and sign up for it.

Getting the Most Out of this Experience

Instructor:

Explain the word “Capper” in Cappers in Training.

Ask: Who wants to be a Capper!?!?

Allow time for Cappers in Training to review the table and choose the type of student they will be in Ignite. Hopefully they all choose “Explorer!”

You have begun an exciting journey toward sparking your business and attaining your dreams. You are not simply a student or a learner in Ignite, you are a Capper in Training—prepared to do what it takes to be successful is your real estate career.

What kind of Capper in Training will you be in Ignite?

The Prisoner	The Vacationer	The Explorer
Has to be there, doesn't want to be there, and doesn't know why they're there.	A day in training is better than a day on the job.	Excited and curious about the new knowledge, skills, and tools they will discover in class.
Doesn't engage	Spends as much time chatting as listening	Listens attentively, then participates fully in discussions and exercises
Spends class time catching up on their emails	There to have fun—distracts the class with irrelevant comments	Asks meaningful questions and contributes compelling aha's
Escapes by spending time in the hall on their phone	Returns late from break and lunch	Arrives to class on time and returns promptly from breaks
Holds on to limiting beliefs	Not purposeful in their learning goals	Adopts a posture of acceptance
Multi-tasks on their computer by working on side projects	OMG! Spends the day on their smartphone, texting and checking Facebook	Takes notes in their manual for future reference
Picks fights with trainer or other participants if they don't agree	Isn't paying attention	Respects the different learning styles and opinions of others

Hopefully you picked “The Explorer!”

Several things are going to make this course a huge victory for you ...

Instructor:

Review expectations and explain to participants that they are now Cappers in Training! Ignite has been designed with their success in mind, which means there will be a lot of "DOING," not just listening and learning. Doing is where the learning happens! Remember there are expectations for you too! Be sure to abide by these. Your students expect it!

Instructor:

Hammer home these answers to help them truly grasp that they're in sales, and they've got to go out and get customers!

Make It Happen – Four Skills

Questions ...

What is your job? Instructor: Sales; Lead Generation

Instructor: Everyone and no one (if you don't

Who is your customer? lead generate!

Instructor: Your knowledge, expertise, and

What is your product? ability to deliver a stellar experience, every time!

Today, you'll learn four new skills essential to gaining a strong customer base and having success in real estate sales.

Instructor:

This list sets the participants up for what's to come in this session. No teaching occurs here.

1. Skill #1: Know Your Big Why and Monetary Goal
2. Skill #2: Commitment to Daily Lead Generation
3. Skill #3: Use Influencing Sales Language
4. Skill #4: Be Accountable to Your Big Why and Monetary Goal

Let's get started!

Skill #1 – Know Your Big Why and Monetary Goals

What drives you is not only your mindset and attitude but what you're passionate about.

- What stirs your soul?
- Why are you in this business?
- What do you hope to achieve for yourself and your family?

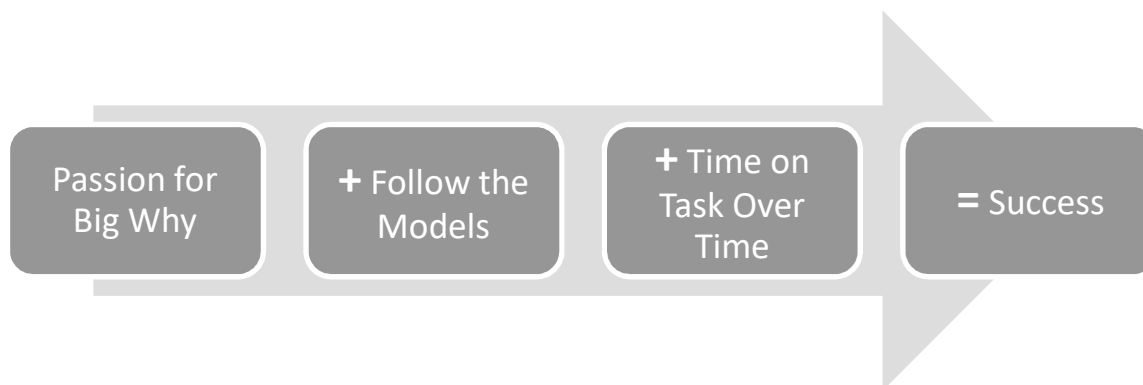

The answers to these questions are the basis for your Big Why. And to fuel that Big Why will take money—an income goal.

To achieve success, you need motivation and inspiration for doing it—your Big Why.

Passion for Your Big Why

Anyone can achieve the goals set in this course, but not everyone will. The journey requires discipline and a commitment to follow models, systems, and a schedule every day. It requires passion toward something bigger than the task at hand—your Big Why.

First, have a Big Why built around your passion, then follow the models you'll learn in this course, keep doing it, and you will achieve grand success!

Instructor:
Tell: This is your reality check! Let's get to the bottom of the reason you're in the business. It's time to be brutally honest with yourself about what drives you.

Top agents can all articulate their Big Why and you will be able to as well. A Big Why is what keeps them going when they're tired, bored, or disappointed. It's the spark that ignites their way every day. Your Big Why might be ...

Instructor:

Review these suggestions.

Tell what YOUR own Big Why is.

- To have your financial success tied directly to your efforts instead of a salary controlled by the opinions of a boss.
- To build your own business.
- To achieve a bigger life through your business.

Big Future

Instructor:

Help your participants visualize their future.

Tell:

Visualization will help get you closer to where you want to be in life.

Ask a volunteer to read aloud the bullets.

Explain what it takes to be Rookie of the Year.

Write down the date twelve months from now: _____. Now imagine this date is today.

- Your business is thriving and your life is everything you've dreamed of.
- Your customers rave about the experience and value you provide and think of you when they have a real estate need.
- Your family and friends are so proud of your success and are consistently referring business your way.
- You are helping others live their dream of owning a home because you are focused on helping them get what they desire.
- You are building the foundation and momentum for your entire career, and gaining relationships and experiences and the income you desire.
- You are the top agent in your Market Center, or Rookie of the Year if you're new.
- You're poised to hire a part-time assistant to handle your 80 percent while you take care of the 20 percent that grows your business.
- You are on the path to ...

*"Build a career worth having, a business worth owning,
and a life worth living.*

Gary Keller, Cofounder, Chairman, and CEO, Keller Williams

Your Turn – Big Why

Skill Mastery Activity: Big Why (Part 1)

Write your answers to these questions.

- What is/was your driving motivation—the why, or goal, for a career in real estate?

- What will achieving your goal mean for you?

- In what ways will your life change?

- What doors will open for you?

Instructor:
Share your own Big Why with a brief story about what it was like starting YOUR business.

Allow quiet time for participants to write their answers on this and the next page.

Time: 5 minutes

Instructor:

Share Gary’s mantra: “Think Big, Act Bold, Live Large.”

Encourage students to take time to think about the one thing that keeps them motivated to do this business.

Remind them that a Big Why can be huge, global—curing AIDS or cancer—and it can also be selfish—a Tuscan villa or a car.

If it’s a monetary goal, probe what the money can provide for them (beyond the basic living expenses).

From your answers on the previous page, write one statement that summarizes your Big Why.

Using the camera on your phone, take a picture of your Big Why and make it your new background, so you will see it and be reminded of it every time you use your phone.

Write your answers to these questions.

- What could get in the way of achieving your Big Why?

- How can you prevent that?

Time: 15 minutes

Aha’s from Activity

Instructor:

Debrief activity by asking for volunteers to share their Big Whys and aha’s.

- Ask how they will feel when they achieve that Big Why.

- Tell: Is it peace? Joy? Go to that place. How dare you not make your lead generation calls and give up on that dream!

Your Monetary Goal

First, you must have a goal!

What Is Your Annual Monetary Goal?

Now that you know your Big Why, what will it take to fund your life and your Big Why?

Write your Annual Monetary Goal down here.

Note: Remember to include taxes and expenses as you consider your monetary goal.

Commission (GCI) Example

Now that you have written down your monetary goal, let's look at what it takes to achieve this amount by calculating the average commission on each house bought or sold.

Average Sales Price	$200,000
Average Commission Rate* (to you)	3%
Average Commission (Net GCI)	$6,000

 Note: A rate of .03 may be high or low, depending on your market, and depends on what you are able to negotiate.*

Note: This commission amount ($6,000) will be used for all examples in Ignite.

Instructor:
Explain that Net GCI is net of Market Center split but before expenses and taxes.

Your Turn – Know Your Commission

Instructor:

Ask: What's the average sales price in our town/city/community? What's the average sales price in your own neighborhood?

Your Commission

Calculate an average commission in your market. (You'll use this number in later calculations.)

Average Sales Price	$
Average Commission Rate (to you)	%
Average Commission (GCI)	$

Factor in Market Center Fees

Example:

- Cap: GCI x 30%, capped at $20,000 (Market Center Caps vary)
- Royalty: GCI x 6%, capped at $3,000
 - Total = $23,000

Your Market Center:

- Cap: GCI x 30%, capped at $_____
- Royalty: GCI x 6%, capped at $3,000
 - Total = $_____ (You'll use this number in later calculations.)

Explain how Cap and Royalty are calculated and "capped" and what they means to their bottom line. Remind them that once they cap, all the GCI earned goes to them. That's why we're calling them "Cappers in Training"!

How Many Transactions to Reach Your Monetary Goal

Your GCI Calculator will assist you in calculating the number of transactions needed and your progress in meeting that number. You can do a quick calculation here.

Example: $100,000 Annual Income Goal

A	Annual NET GCI Goal	$100,000
B	Market Center Cap	$23,000
C	GCI (A+B)	$123,000
D	Average Commission per Transaction	$6,000
E	Annual Transaction Goal (C/D)	21

Instructor:

Explain the chart calculations.

Tell: If your goal is to have an income of $100,000, you'll want to figure out how many transactions you need to obtain this goal. Start by adding all your Market Center fees in, and knowing your average commission per transaction.

Box A = goal income, Box B = Market Center fees, Box C = total transaction volume, Box D = average commission, and Box E = your transaction goal to reach $100,000.

In this example, with an average house price of $200,000, you will need 21 transactions to reach $100,000.

Instructor:

Your Turn –How Many Transactions Will It Take?

Have students complete this on their own. Help them as needed. Debrief this activity by addressing the number of transactions they arrived at. Ask: That seems easy, right? Tell: The question is, where will that business come from? Be sure they enter the number of transactions they must get each month into their calendars. Ask for results and aha's.

Skill Mastery Activity: Transactions

1. In the blanks, calculate the number of transactions to attain YOUR personal income goal.

2. Calculate how many transactions you'll need each month: _____
Write this number down in your calendar at the top of every month. Do it now as a visual reminder.

Time: 5 minutes

Aha's from Activity

- _____
- _____

Skill #2 – Commitment to Daily Lead Generation

Great! You’ve got a Big Why and a monetary goal. So, how do you get from here to there? Lead Generation!

Journey to Your Monetary Goal

If Real Estate Was a Factory

If you ran a factory, you would know how long it takes to make a widget, right?

$$\begin{array}{ccccccc}
 2 \text{ Hours} & 2 \text{ Hours} & 2 \text{ Hours} & 2 \text{ Hours} & & & \\
 \hline
 \textit{Step 1} & \textit{Step 2} & \textit{Step 3} & \textit{Step 4} & = & 8 \text{ Hours} &
 \end{array}$$

You would also know that if you didn’t do step 1, at the end of the day, you would have no widgets!

Real Estate Is No Different ...

$$\begin{array}{cccccc}
 \textit{Time} & \textit{Time} & \textit{Time} & \textit{Time} & \textit{Time} & \\
 \hline
 \textit{Lead Gen} & \textit{Appointments} & \textit{Agreements} & \textit{Contracts} & \textit{Close} & = 90 \text{ Days}
 \end{array}$$

For every day you don’t lead generate, 90 days later you can expect no money! You don’t want this to happen.

Instructor:
Review the importance of doing what needs to be done in the order it needs to be done. Provide estimates on times based on your own business.

Emphasize this statement ←!

Discuss the following questions as a class

- How long (on average) does it take to get a buyer or seller to sign a contract for a sale or listing?

Instructor:

1-60 days (or more), depending on how much time you put into lead generation every day and how many appointments you go on and close.

- How long does it take for a transaction to close and for you to get paid?

Instructor:

30-60 days, depending on your market.

- How quickly do you want to get paid? Or, how long can you go without a payday?

- What will it take for you to get paid so you can begin to fund your Big Why?

Instructor:

Lead generate every day, build your database of contacts, communicate with people about real estate daily, commit to go on a lot of appointments, and practice scripts to get better

Lead Generation Funnel

Your lead generation funnel must be filled with leads—people who have a real estate need now or in the near future. LOTS of leads!

The countdown to your payday starts when a lead becomes an appointment with a buyer or seller, then an agreement to work exclusively with you. Next comes a contract, and negotiation of an offer on their behalf. Finally, you service the entire transaction through to a successful closing and receive your commission—it's payday!

Instructor:
*Explain the Lead
Generation
Funnel and how each
Ignite Action
Block will to payday!*

Ignite's focus is on prospecting for leads!

Calling Every Session

Every Ignite Power Session, we will—together—make phone calls for business. We will help each other, support each other, and cheer each other's success. Your Ignite Faculty will ask for and post your results for the entire class to celebrate.

This means you'll need names and contact information every day for calling in class. You may be thinking, "What if I run out of people to call?" We will explore ways of finding more contacts as we progress through Ignite.

Remember, calling for leads is the single most important step in building your business. You would be cheating yourself and your family if you were not prepared to make calls every class.

The Simple Formula

Why can some agents make 100 calls a day and others fear the phone? Because successful agents follow a simple formula:

1. Leverage powerful scripts.
2. Build the relationship.
3. Ask for the business.
4. Ask for referrals.
5. Come from contribution.

It comes back to your mindset—one of helping people and being positive. Focus on your goals, avoid attachment to the outcome, and you will succeed.

Reminder: Comply with federal and state Do Not Call (DNC) and spam laws and the policies of your local Market Center.

Instructor:
Review and emphasize these.

Remind the Cappers of the DNC and spam laws.

Four Powerful Habits

The success of your business depends on you having productive, business-building habits, performed every day. It is essential that you get into these habits right away—especially the following Four Powerful Habits. These are the four things all successful real estate agents do every day throughout their careers!

“The quality is in the quantity!”

Four Powerful Habits and Activities

Four Habits	Four Activities Daily 10/4
1. Grow and Manage Your Database	■ Add 10 new contacts into your contact database every day .
2. Prospect	■ Speak with 10 people in your database every day .
3. Follow Up	■ Write 10 notes to people you know or have recently connected with every day .
4. Know Your Market	■ Preview 10 homes for sale every day and visit ten in person every week.

Instructor:
Tell: As you continue to make calls and lead generate, you’ll begin to gain traction. And you will find the work easier because you will have built the habits that will bring you the wealth, freedom, and success you desire.

The Daily 10/4

The Daily 10/4 is the Ignite model that reinforces the Four Powerful Habits. It’s a simple tracking method for you to follow and it’s easy to remember!

Just remember ...

1. “Daily” – every day, at least 6 days a week to begin
2. 10 – ten of each
3. 4 – four activities

Instructor:

Tell: You will be committing to completing the Daily 10/4 every day, beginning today! The Daily 10/4 sets minimum goals for each day. Countless agents will attest that accomplishing this daily challenge will put you in easy reach of your goals and get you into the four habits quickly.

How to Complete the Daily 10/4

1. Grow and Manage Your Database – Add 10 people to your database with complete contact information.

Every day, add ten new people to your database—this means adding their name, address, phone number, cell phone, and more contact information if you can get it. These can be people you know or have just met, or people you know peripherally—that is, you know of them through someone else. Just make sure that by the end of the day you have added ten complete records to your database. Keep in mind ... the size of your database will determine the size of your income!

2. Prospect – Connect with 10 people in your database.

Every day, connect with at least ten people from your database. The purpose for the call or conversation is threefold:

1. let them know about your business,
2. ask for their business, and
3. ask for referral business.

3. Follow Up – Write 10 notes.

Every day, send a handwritten note or letter with a business card to at least ten people you know or have recently connected with. Begin with those you've called—this is the follow-up to the call. You can also write notes to people you meet; like the mechanic that changes your oil or the barista that makes your coffee in the morning. This habit alone will differentiate you from others in a big way and enhance your prospecting.

4. Know Your Market – Preview 10 homes per week.

Every week*, preview at least ten homes in your market. Explore different neighborhoods and price ranges. Seeing the property up close is a lot different than viewing it online. Know what your clients will see online and then know the truth by visiting properties. This is a valuable step that should not be skipped. You'll soon find that you know more about the market than most!

Instructor: * Think of this as two per day, or ten per week.

Help students grasp this with an example.

Tell:

You already have people in your phone. Add them to your database, call them, tell them about your business, and ask for a referral. Then write a thank-you note for helping you grow your business. So, the first three habits can be achieved with the same ten people.

Success Tracking

You've learned from the Six Personal Perspectives the benefit of accountability.

Ignite has a built-in tool called myTracker to help you develop the habits of doing the activities—the Daily 10/4—that generate results. myTracker allows you to record your activities on a daily basis and share it with others in class. And any results you enter roll up into your Monthly Trends Report, available to you on KWConnect.com.

myTracker Online Tracking System

Your Ignite Faculty or another person in your Market Center will enter your name into the online tracking system, myTracker, and then you'll be able to begin using myTracker.

Access myTracker from Ignite online on KWConnect.com on your computer, laptop, or smartphone, or by keying in Daily104.com.

Track your progress using the online myTracker system each day. Your results will then be rolled up by class and presented during each Power Session by your Ignite Faculty.

myTracker is meant to be fun and motivating. Your Ignite Faculty, your fellow Cappers in Training, and myTracker will keep you focused and on task to develop your success habits.

The screenshot shows the 'Enter Daily 10/4 for 07/18/2015' form. It includes a 'Change Date' button and four activity categories, each with a progress bar and a star icon:

1. Add 10 to database: 0
2. Make 10 connections: 0
3. Write 10 notes: 0
4. Preview 10 homes/week: 0

Each category has a plus/minus control. At the bottom, there is a 'Save' button and a checkbox for 'Also want to Enter Milestones?'.

Skill #3 – Use Influencing Sales Language

“Did you find everything you were looking for?”

“Go ahead, look around, and please let me know if I can help you.”

“I see you admiring that large-screen TV. Are you looking to have one in your home for the big game this weekend?”

Instructor:
Read these 3 phrases out loud.

Recognize any of these phrases? Of course ... they are well-known and commonly used phrases in sales and service industries. Since you are now in a sales industry, your success is dependent on your use of real estate sales language.

Since we are first in the business of lead generation, what are we really saying about our job? (fill in the blanks)

Talking to people _____ about their Real Estate _____ needs, and the needs of people they know _____.

Instructor:
Have them fill in the blanks.

There are two ways of doing this:

1. Entrepreneurial (E): Just chat up whoever happens to cross your path. And if real estate comes up, great, and if it doesn't, oh well ... I'm sure to get a deal one of these days.
2. Purposeful (P): Know exactly who you want to talk to, block time to communicate with them, and be prepared to have great conversations that lead to you providing value in exchange for them helping you grow your business.

Which are you willing to bet your livelihood and the well-being of your family on? E - entrepreneurial, or P - purposeful?

Instructor:
Ask this question.

Scripts Are Cool!

1. Purpose of Scripts
2. Benefits of Scripts
3. Learning Scripts
4. Calling with Scripts

Instructor:

Ask: If we were plumbers and we showed up to work without a wrench, how is your day going to go? What is your customer going to think? Are they going to pay you? Scripts are your "tools"!

Remind them this is the only way they move from E to P.

Instructor:

Tell:

The challenge with learning scripts is that it requires us to change some of our beliefs, actions, and most significantly, our words. We have to remember that growth comes from challenge. Think E to P! We have to change what we say and what we do in order to change the results we get.

1. Purpose of Scripts

Scripts

A great script is 100 percent customer oriented and benefits the customer throughout the entire conversation.

Have you ever listened to someone talk for a period of time and realized afterward that you have no idea what they were saying? It happens more than we might care to admit. Moreover, how often do we think we're being clear in our communication only to find that the other person didn't get it?

Communication isn't about what you think you're saying—it's about what they actually hear. Scripts allow you to have a rehearsed response that delivers a powerful message in a way that they will best understand, or ask a powerful question in a way that they will be able to quickly share the information you need to better serve them.

*Scripts are one way to move you from E to P.
All top agents use scripts and practice them daily!*

2. Benefits of Scripts

Instructor:

Ask: What are other benefits?

- Scripts give us the confidence to do our job.
- They allow us to stay focused and in the present moment.
- They provide consistency in what we say and do.

- _____
- _____
- _____

Instructor:

Discuss these 3 questions and ask for aha's after.

1. What are your limiting beliefs around scripts?
 - _____
 - _____
2. What are 3 negative consequences for failing to learn scripts? (for example, a lack of income to pay bills, having to drive the old car or no vacation for the family)
 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
3. Affirm your mindset with:

“Because of scripts, I sell more houses and earn more income.”

3. Learning Scripts

In order to internalize scripts so they become our own and sound natural and friendly, we begin by memorizing them. Both take time ... and practice!

MEMORIZE

INTERNALIZE

Practice Makes Perfect

Like with any new skill, it takes practice to learn and perfect it. Top agents know the value of scripts and continue to practice them daily so they are sharp and always ready with the exact right words to say, or the perfect question to ask.

Wrap your mind around learning scripts by saying, “Learning scripts will make great things happen in my life.”

Choose ways to incorporate practice into your daily routine:

1. Arrange with a partner to spend 15 minutes each day reciting scripts to each other.
2. Record yourself saying your scripts on your phone and play them back while driving, speaking along with the recording. Do this daily.
3. What are some other fun ideas? _____

Instructor:
Ask for additional ideas for practice: hold a script-off, or call people randomly to recite a script.

Memorize in 6 Steps

Isn't it interesting that after many years, you can still recite the ABCs and simple nursery rhymes? How do you think you learned those? By simple repetition! You will learn scripts the same way.

1. READ: the first sentence of the script out loud five times.

When you read your script out loud, you're engaging your eyes, your voice, and your entire body, not just your eyes.
2. REPEAT: the same sentence five times with a huge smile on your face.

You will notice a difference in your tonality when you say it with a smile. Try standing in front of a mirror; watch your body language as you repeat your script.
3. READ: the second line of the script out loud ten times while smiling.
4. SAY: Now for the hard part. Put your script down. From memory, recite the first two sentences out loud ten times with a big smile. If you make a mistake, start over from the beginning.
5. SAY: Continue adding one sentence at a time, repeating ten times. Any time you make a mistake, go back to the beginning.
6. SAY ENTIRE SCRIPT: as fast as you can, five times in a row. Your chances of stumbling when reading the scripts at a normal pace after you've practiced and chanted them is very small.

Doing this 6-step process is the way scripts become natural to you. Instead of having to think about what to say next, you'll be able to listen to how your customer is responding.

How long will it take to memorize and internalize? The truth is it doesn't matter because as you keep using the scripts, you become better at them. Don't rush. Be patient. Expect good results and they will come to you. Keep smiling, practicing, and rehearsing ... and you will achieve success internalizing the scripts.

I'd like to share some exciting news with you. Usually, I'm the one helping people make a move. This time, I'm the one who moved! I've moved my real estate business over to Keller Williams Realty and just because my company name has changed, the level of service I offer to clients hasn't. My clients will continue to get all my enthusiasm and hard work. And as you already know, I'll do whatever it takes to help people. May I count on you to help me grow my business?

And I'd like to ask, who might you know from work, your neighborhood, or a group you belong to who's interested in buying or selling a home, or investing in real estate? Can you think of anyone right now? Thanks for taking a moment to think about it.

I have a wealth of interesting and timely information about the real estate market in your area, and I'd love to send it to you. Let me make sure I have your current email and address.

And do me a favor, please. If you do hear of someone with a real estate need, will you keep me in mind? Great. And, after you download the app and try it out, send me a text and let me know how you like it.

Thank you for your time and help, and please let me know if there is anything I can ever do for you.

Real-Play: Get Referrals and Share Your App

Begin by saying an affirming message out loud to yourself:

“I always come from contribution. People will welcome my call.”

Get your phone and your list of contacts and call people you know. You will use the script you just practiced to offer your KW Mobile App and ask for referrals.

- Goal #1: Call until you make contact with at least three people and recite your script.
- Goal #2: Get at least one referral!
- Goal #3: Get at least one person to download your KW Mobile Search App.

Reminder: Comply with federal and state Do Not Call (DNC) and spam laws and the policies of your local Market Center.

Your Turn – Personal Notes

Daily 10/4 – Handwritten Notes

Instructor:
Model the behavior! You and the participants write notes to the three people called. Congratulate them for making progress on their Daily 10/4 already!

Part of your Daily 10/4 is writing handwritten notes to those you've connected with. This will differentiate you from other agents in a big way. After all, when was the last time you received a handwritten note? What effect did it have?

1. Write a note to each of the people you called to thank them for their time.

Thank you for taking the time to chat with me today. It was great to catch up with you and let you know what I've been up to with my business. I'm thrilled to be with Keller Williams, and I'm available to you at any time to be an asset and resource to you, your family, and your friends. Please call me whenever a question or need comes up. I'll stay in touch. I appreciate you and I wish you all the best.

2. Enclose a business card in each note, stamp, and mail from your Market Center.

Time: 5 minutes

Skill #4 – Be Accountable to Your Big Why and Monetary Goals

Accountability Feedback Loop

Earlier in the Six Personal Perspectives, we learned that accountability is a tool for continually changing the results in your life in those areas that matter most—your 20 percent.

Goal achievement is a direct result of accountability. To support your goal setting, we recommend you:

1. Follow an Action Plan. During this course, you will have an action plan that outlines the specific actions you will take to achieve your goals. You will also create a calendar that helps you time block the specific activities you will do to achieve your goals.
2. Work with your Market Center leadership to help you measure, evaluate, and make adjustments to your Action Plan.

Develop a Prioritized Plan of Action

To-do lists unfortunately are not planned, focused, action lists. Rather, they are a catch-all for unresolved issues and not related to outcomes. Instead, move from E to P (entrepreneurial to purposeful) with an Action Plan. Properly prioritize and plan your time, so you focus on the things that matter—your dollar-productive activities—and avoid squandering your time on low-value activities.

Instructor:

Tell: By writing everything on your Action Plan, you empty your mind of these stressful reminders and make sure that you prioritize these actions coherently and consistently. This helps you improve your concentration, because you don't have these distractions buzzing around your mind.

Keep your Action Plan on your computer, tablet, or phone to easily check, update, and maintain.

Action Plan

1. Make a List

First, make a list of all the things in your world that require action or resolution—everything that's incomplete and needs action, whether it's urgent or not, big or small, personal or professional.

2. Prune

Now, carefully consider each item. Is it dollar productive and part of your 20 percent? Does it have real relevance to you? If unimportant or not of relevance, delete it.

3. Prioritize

For the remaining items on your list, determine two things: their importance and their urgency. This will help you organize and prioritize the list.

- Important activities have an outcome that leads to us achieving our goals, whether these are professional or personal. These are your 20 percent items, the ones that are dollar productive.
- Urgent activities demand immediate attention because the consequences of not dealing with them are immediate.

The ONE Thing

The Keller Williams method to prioritize comes from a book written by Gary Keller, The ONE Thing: The Surprisingly Simple Truth Behind Extraordinary Results.

The book poses a question to ask yourself over and over ...

What is the ONE Thing I can do such that by doing it everything else will be easier or unnecessary?

Ask yourself this question every time you need to focus on the ONE Thing that will propel your business forward. It will always be a dollar-productive activity!

Activity: Rate the Task

Here are some task examples. How would you rate each item’s importance and urgency?

Activity	Important? 20%	Urgent?
Return a call to a person inquiring about a listing	✓	✓
Schedule a training class on contracts	✓
Daily 10/4	✓	✓
Order new business cards
Put marketing materials together for meeting with a seller next week	✓
Update my Facebook
Pick up dry cleaning before they close		✓
Lead generate	✓	✓

Instructor:
Allow students to quickly fill in this chart, then ask what conclusions they came to and why.

Rank tasks according to the following:

1. Important and Urgent

These are the activities that help you achieve your personal and professional goals. There are two types: unforeseen/unexpected tasks, and tasks you've left until the last minute.

2. Important but Not Urgent

These are also the activities that help you achieve your personal and professional goals. Make sure you have plenty of time to do these things properly, so that they do not become urgent.

3. Not Important but Urgent

These are things that prevent you from achieving your goals. Ask yourself whether you can reschedule or delegate them.

4. Not Important and Not Urgent

These activities are just a distraction. You can simply ignore or cancel many of them.

Instructor:
Tell: If you don't hold your lead generation sacred, you will make your need for leads URGENT!

Your Turn – Prioritize Your Activities

Skill Mastery Activity: Accountability

Start your Action Plan.

Instructor:
Check that participants enter these activities in their calendar!

1. List 10 tasks you need to complete. Lead generation is already listed for you!
2. Rate each on importance and urgency.
3. Prioritize the tasks.
4. Schedule on your calendar based on priority.

Aha's from Activity

- _____
- _____

Live By a Calendar

Now you are able to schedule tasks and activities on your calendar based on your prioritized Action Plan. Review your Action Plan and calendar every week. Delete items you've completed and add any new actions that have come your way.

This approach helps you maintain focus on daily jobs and long-term goals at the same time. This reduces stress, puts you in control, and gives you a real sense of achievement.

Truth

Successful agents plan their days and stick to their plan.

In Ignite, you'll get into the habit of planning for the critical tasks each day, and you'll schedule activities that generate revenue first, and schedule those that maintain your business second.

Time Blocking

Time blocking is a tool for organizing your day and focusing on the dollar-productive activities that matter most. Remember that first you are in the business of lead generation!

TIME BLOCK FOR LEAD GENERATION

Write down exactly the days of the week and the hours you will do your lead generation.

In your calendar, time block for lead generation every day for up to one month. (for the duration of Ignite—you'll continue lead generating for the rest of your career!)

Time block for home previewing—10 homes every week.

Instructor:

Define time blocking and its importance. "If you erase, you must replace!"

Protect Your Time!

1. Block your calendar for the same time period—before noon—every single day, week after week. The morning is generally the best time for lead generation, as it ensures you do not get caught up in other activities and lose the day.
2. No skipping. If you erase, you must replace! If any event stops you from accomplishing your lead generation at your set time, that commitment does not simply disappear. It's up to you to make up the lost opportunity in another time slot.
3. Allow no interruptions unless it is a REAL emergency, like a family crisis. It's easier than you think to waste precious time on unrelated phone calls, water-cooler chat, or putting out fires that can wait until later.

Who Will Hold You Accountable?

The highest of high achievers have coaches who hold them accountable. Michael Jordan, Mia Hamm, Joe Montana, and Mary Lou Retton have all attributed much of their success to their coaches who held them accountable. Who will do that for you? You have options:

1. Coaching or Mentoring Program
2. Partners in Success
3. Personal Accountability – make no mistake, you cannot do this alone. Yet you can commit to being accountable to someone else.

1. Coaching or Mentoring Program

KW has coaching and mentoring programs available for you. Ask your Ignite Faculty or your Team Leader about the options for you.

- KW MAPS coaching group programs: mapscoaching.kw.com/group. Here are some example courses:
 - Language of Sales
 - 90 Listings in 90 Days
 - Dominate Your Market
 - Farming Can Make You Millions
- Market Center Productivity Coach
- _____
- _____

Instructor:
Tell:
Accountability will enable you to obtain your goals. Having an accountability plan will reduce worry, help focus on what's important, which helps give you a higher level of attentiveness.

Instructor:
This is a sample of some of the KW MAPS Coaching programs.

2. Partners in Success

Instructor:

Review rules.

One of the great benefits of having an accountability partner is that it increases your productivity and keeps you on track and in check with your goals.

Instructor:

Tell: Pick a team of 3-4 people in class who won't accept any excuses, people who will challenge you. For the accountability process to succeed, you must respect your partners and be prepared to listen to, and act on, their feedback.

RULES FOR ACCOUNTABILITY PARTNERS

Provide a safe place to share.	Set frequency of checking in with each other.	Create a commitment and stick to it.
Follow through with action items.	Dig deep to find out why you do the things you do.	Allow to give and take feedback.
Listen and pay attention while the other person shares	Respect each other and the process.	Have each other's best interest in mind.

Select a team of 3-4 people from your fellow Cappers in Training

Set regular meetings. Before each Ignite class is a great idea.

Be Open to Accountability

Answer the following questions whenever you meet with your Partner in Success.

Question	Answer
What's your Big Why?
What opportunities for change or improvement surfaced?
What will you do differently next week?
How will you reward yourself when you've accomplished?

3. Personal Accountability

PERSONAL ACCOUNTABILITY

Being willing to answer—to be accountable—for the outcomes resulting from your choices, behaviors, and actions.

Personal accountability means that you are willing to personally ...

- Understand and accept the task.
- Take action to achieve results.
- Answer for the results obtained, regardless of the outcome.
- To accept blame if things go wrong and make corrections or improvements to avoid mistakes in the future.

Question: What are some benefits of being accountable?

- Instructor:
- You achieve your Big Goals and long-term success.
- Keeps you focused on what's important.
- Builds trust, because people know that they can depend on you.

Instructor:

On these two pages your Cappers in Training are committing to true accountability by signing two commitment agreements.

Explain the purpose of the agreements:

- 1. To clearly outline what is expected of them during Ignite*
- 2. To make a commitment to their own success!*
- 3. To obtain buy-in from their family*

Ask them to take some time to read the following two pages – there's one for the Capper in Training (Agreement of Expectation), and one for their significant other (Family/Significant Other Agreement.)

Ask them to complete and hand in the Agreement of Expectation. You will turn these over to the Market Center Team Leader and MCA for signatures and filing.

Explain to the Cappers in Training they may take the Significant Other Agreement home to review and have signed. Ask them to return the completed agreement to you.

Throughout Ignite, as needed to inspire action, you may pull this agreement out and remind the Cappers in Training what they committed to.

Family/Significant Other Agreement

Your loved one has chosen to build a business in real estate. This can provide your family an opportunity to build wealth and live the life you want to live. As with building any business, it will take commitment, time, and effort. Above all, it will also take your support.

As your loved one begins this new endeavor, please take a moment to consider the statements below and discuss how you will support one another in this exciting time.

Family Member:

- I understand the time and activity commitment that Ignite and a real estate business requires.
- I understand that in starting a real estate business workdays may extend into evenings and weekends.
- I understand the commitment and give my complete support. This may mean that I am doing more for a while—caring for children, making meals, cleaning, etc.

Capper in Training:

- I understand that my family is supporting me so that I can succeed and I commit to do the activities required to be successful.
- I commit to communicating my schedule to my family to better plan our time together.
